Lodging Information:

Location:

Arrowhead Lodge in Dayton, Wyoming.

BYOB (Bring Your Own Bedding). To ensure the cabin truly feels like your own, we ask that guests bring their own bedding.

There are no bathrooms in the rustic cabins. However, there is a central shower house that is well maintained, heated, and cleaned daily. All cabins do have electricity, along with propane heat.

There are walking trails near the cabins. Last year, we were visited almost daily by moose, so keep your eye out!

There is also a small fishing pond on the premises.

ATV Rentals & Guided Tours-

ATCV Rentals & Tours are available at Bear Lodge Resort, just a few miles

Hikes-

CLOUD PEAK WILDERNESS-

189,000 acres of untouched wilderness full of wildlife, hiking trails, and towering peaks. Named after the Bighorns highest peak, Cloud Peak (13,167ft), the wilderness are truly is a must see while visiting the Bighorns. The only remaining glacier in the Bighorns is also in the Cloud Peak Wilderness.

SHELL RESERVOIR-

An excellent place to cast out a line or just enjoy the view. Shell Reservoir is stocked full of trout. If you're feeling adventurous, rent a kayak from Wyoming Adventure Ninja and explore all shores of Shell Reservoir.

Sights-

MEDICINE WHEEL NATIONAL HISTORIC LANDMARK

Estimated to be thousands of years old, the historic medicine wheel is still a wonder of the world. Its origins baffle scientists and even the native Crow tribe. It is said that the wheel has served spiritual, medicinal, and religious purposes over the years. If its mythical presence doesn't make you pause for a minute, the scenery certainly will. The wheel sits at an elevation around 10,000 feet.

Shopping-

Dayton Mercantile (Dayton Wyoming)

King's Saddlery (Sheridan, Wyoming)
